WooCommerce Developer Resources

Your one-stop hub for all things related to developing with WooCommerce. This hub is regularly updated and is a resource you'll want to keep coming back to.

WooCommerce Community Slack

Connect with WooCommerce developers around the world, including regular "office hours" with the folks who work directly on WooCommerce.

WooCommerce Meetups

Join a meetup and connect virtually or in-person with other members of the WooCommerce Community. As a Pro, participating in meetups are a great way to gain insight and perspective as well as to improve your sharing and presenting abilities.

WooCommerce Facebook Group

Join the WooCommerce Facebook Group for a fast-paced, high volume dose of the WooCommerce Community. This is a great resource to hear from and connect with store owners and to get a "pulse" of what's going on across the ecosystem.

WooCommerce on Twitter

We keep our Twitter account up-to-date and for those of you on Twitter this can be a great way to stay in the loop, gain insight and perspective as well as to improve your sharing and presenting abilities.
